GERMANS BACK OF CUBAN REVOLT, CLAI

British Correspondent Writes of Desolation Found in Portions of France From Which Germans Driven; Pathetic Stories of Survivors and Ruined Villages Show Extent of German Cruelty, Claim.

I ONDON, Eng. May 12 —German atrocities perpetrated on the civilina population in France and Belgium were even more ruthless than was at first supposed, according to new information gathered by a war correspondent with the British army. Writing from the field he says:

I am moved because day by day I have been visiting the places that were once their homes and are now the rubbish heaps which ile about that rere once their homes and are now as rubbish heaps which his about that treat stretch of country laid waste by he enemy in the wake of his retreat, where there is only silence and black ruin, because, also, I have just been among those people, seeing their tears, hearing their pitiful takes, touched by imands which plucked my sleeve so that I should listen to another story of outrage and misery.

"All they told me, and all I have ceen, builds up into a great tragedy. These young girls, who wept before me, shaken by the terror of their remembrance, these old brave men, who cried like children, these old women who did not weep but spoke with strange, smiling eyes as to life sgreat fronies, revealed to me in a fuller way the enormous agony of life behind the German lines now shifted lask a little so that these people have exceed and the complex of the disaster and forting and encouraging the sices furnishing food, medicing the complex of th

German Plot to Cause Uprising In India Is Revealed By Anarchist L

Calcutta, India, May 12.—How plotted to establish an Indian republic, or a Tarkish-India, after overpowering the British troops in Bengal and sacking this city, has just been disclosed by Sir Reginald Craddock to the imperial legislative council at Delhi.

Replying to charges that the defence of India act was being used for purposes not connacted with the war, he naid:

"The paper I hold in my hand is a statement by a young man who became an anarchist at the arge of 18, and contains all the chief incidents of his career during the last ten years.

"He has described arrangements for causing a rising in this country in communication with the enemy." I will read an extract:

"We were extremely anxious to keep our plans as secret as possible up to the last moment, as our success depended solely on taking the egovernment unawares. Numerically we remember unawares. Numerically we remember the moment as so are success depended solely on taking the government unawares.
